Sabina Ostrowska wrote two new units for the Fourth Edition: Unit 46, Travel Bookings and Unit 49, Cafés. The publishers would like to thank Sabina for her contribution to this edition.

Introduction

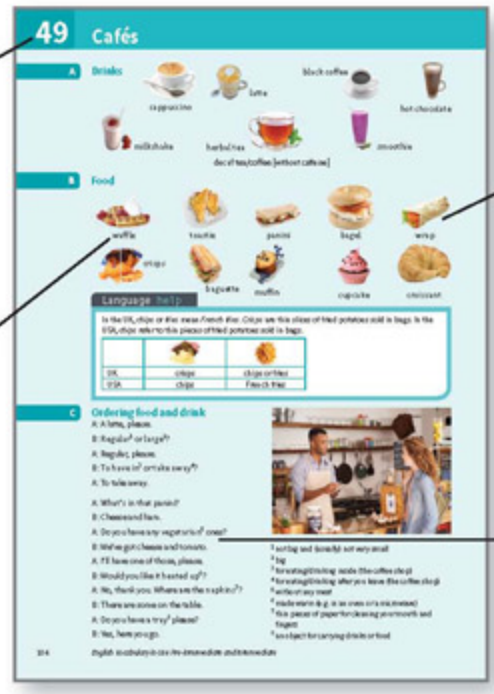

To the student

This book will help you learn more than 2,000 words and phrases, and you can use it without a teacher. There are 100 units in the book. You can study them in any order, but the first four units have information about vocabulary that will help you with your learning.

Here is what the pages look like:

New vocabulary is in bold.

Pictures and diagrams show the meaning of some words.

Example sentences help you to understand new words.

The right-hand page practises the new vocabulary.

There is an example in each exercise to help you.

There is space for you to write your answers.

Over to you is a chance for you to use the new words to write about yourself, your life and your country.

After you do the exercises, you can check your answers in the Answer key at the back of the book. You will also find possible answers for most of the Over to you exercises.

The Index at the back of the book has all the new words and phrases from the units, with a phonemic transcription to help you with pronunciation. If you have the edition with the ebook, you can listen to the pronunciation of all the new vocabulary, and there are more practice exercises as well. see p262 for more information about the ebook.

It is a good idea to have a dictionary when you use the book. sometimes you may want a bilingual dictionary, so you can find a translation; sometimes the book asks you to use an English dictionary for an exercise. You also need a notebook when you are studying. The study units 1–4 in this book will give you ideas and information to help you to use your notebook and become a better learner. I hope you enjoy using this book.

To the teacher

This book can be used in class or for self-study. It is intended for learners at the upper A2 level and B1 level on the Council of Europe scale, and teaches more than 2,000 words and phrases. The vocabulary is organised around common everyday topics, but also contains units on different aspects of language such as phrasal verbs, uncountable nouns and link words and phrases. These units provide key information about lexis, but also help to ensure that learners are exposed to the most important vocabulary for their level. The first four units are dedicated to aspects of vocabulary learning such as record keeping and dictionary use. The book has been written so that units can be studied in any order, but I recommend you look at these four study units first, as they provide learners with important advice about vocabulary learning in general.

Throughout the book, vocabulary items have been chosen for their usefulness in a wide range of everyday situations, and this task has been made easier by having access to the English Profile (EP). Forming part of a large research programme sponsored by the Council of Europe, the EP helps teachers and students identify the words or phrases that a learner can be expected to know at each level of the Common European Framework. The words and phrases have mainly been selected using the Cambridge Learner Corpus, examination wordlists and classroom materials, and in this book the main focus is on words and phrases at the upper end of the A2 level and across the B1 level.

Much of the new vocabulary (on average about 25 items per unit) is presented through different types of text, and then explained immediately after the item appears, or in a separate glossary below the text; some words are presented in tables or lists, and contextualised in sentence examples; some of the new vocabulary is presented in pictures and diagrams.

The new vocabulary is then practised on the right-hand pages through a wide range of exercise types. These pages generally progress from easier to more difficult exercises, with items often tested receptively first, e.g. through a matching or grouping exercise, before moving on to more challenging productive exercises such as gap-fill texts or sentence transformations. In many units, the final exercise is called Over to you. This indicates a personalised exercise, in which learners have an opportunity to use some of the new vocabulary to talk about themselves, their lives and their country, and sometimes to express their own personal opinions. These make ideal classroom speaking activities for pairs or groups, but many of the exercises on the right-hand page can be adapted for speaking practice. For example, where there are short question and answer dialogues, students can first read the dialogues out loud, then one student can ask the questions, and their partner has to respond appropriately using target vocabulary from the unit, but without referring to the book.

There is a comprehensive Answer key at the back of the book, as well as an Index of all the vocabulary taught with a phonemic pronunciation guide and a unit reference to where each item appears.

We hope you enjoy using this new edition.

Study unit 1 Learning vocabulary

A Using this book

It's a good idea to have a routine when you use this book. [something you do often and usually in the same way] For example:

- a weekly routine when you study a new unit for at least [not less than] 30–45 minutes;
- a daily routine when you revise that unit. [study it again] You may only need to revise for five or ten minutes each time.

1.1 Over to you

Write your answers.

1 How often can you spend at least half an hour or forty- five minutes on a unit?

2 How often can you revise? How much time can you spend when you revise? Where will you do it?

B Studying a new unit

When you are studying a unit for the first time, you need to be active when you are learning.

- With a new word or phrase, say it aloud [speak it so you can hear it], and repeat it to yourself silently [in your head, not speaking]. If you have the eBook that goes with the book, use it to check the pronunciation.
- Use a highlighter pen to mark words you think are important or difficult.
- Write down new words and phrases in your notebook. (See Unit 2 for more information.)
- Always try to write an example sentence for new words. You can choose an example from this book or a dictionary, but an example from your own life will often help you to remember a word, e.g. I shared a flat with an Australian girl when I was in London last year.
- Do exercises in pencil, then you can rub them out (using a rubber) and do them again later. This is a good way to revise vocabulary.

1.2 Over to you

Write your answers.

1 Which of these things do you do now when you are learning vocabulary?

2 What will you do in the future? .....

C Revising a unit

When you are revising a unit one or two days later, it is also important to be as active as possible.

- Test yourself, e.g. look at a word and cover the meaning. Can you remember what the meaning is? If you can't, check the meaning, then come back to the word in five minutes' time and test yourself again.
- Look at what you wrote in your notebook when you first studied the unit. Is there any new information you want to add, e.g. something about the pronunciation, or a common word partner? (See Unit 2.)
- Diagrams may help you to organise some of the vocabulary differently, and help you to remember it.

1.3 Over to you

Write your answers.

1 Do you revise vocabulary that you study? If so, how often? .....

.....

2 Will you try to revise more often in the future? If so, will you use some of the ideas above?

D Expanding* your vocabulary

- When you learn a word, e.g. dirty, think of synonyms (syn) [words with a similar meaning] or opposites (opp) in your language. Look them up in a bilingual dictionary to find the English words, then look up the English words in an English dictionary to check the meaning. From this, you will find that the opposite of dirty is clean, and you may also find filthy [very dirty].

  * making something bigger

1.4 Using this method, find opposites for the words in bold.

1 My room is very clean. opp dirty
2 It's a permanent job. opp .....
3 He was kind to all of his animals. opp .....
4 Babies have very soft, smooth skin. opp .....
5 Where's the entrance? opp .....
6 Was the bird dead? opp .....
7 Did they accept the invitation? opp .....

- Building word families (see Units 70–72) will also help to expand your vocabulary. From a noun, verb or adjective, you can often find related words in the dictionary with a similar meaning. So, you can often learn two or three words, and not just one, e.g. argue v = have an angry discussion; n = argument.

1.5 Use a dictionary to find the related parts of speech for the words in bold.

1 She gave me some advice. verb advise
2 We mustn't argue. noun .....
3 I will have to revise this unit. noun .....
4 Is there a choice? verb .....
5 I want to expand my vocabulary. noun .....
6 The two boys are very different. noun ..... verb .....
7 They need to communicate more. noun ..... adj .....

- Try to read and listen to English as much as possible. The more you read and listen, the more you will learn. When you read, try to:
  – Highlight or underline interesting new words.
  – Highlight words if they are familiar but you can't remember the meaning.
- There is a lot of spoken English on the Internet which you can play again and again. Try to make a note of interesting words and look up the meaning.

1.6 Over to you

Now choose a unit that interests you. Study the left-hand page, then do the exercises in pencil. Wait for at least 24 hours, revise the unit, then answer these questions.

1 How many answers did you get right the first time? .....

2 How many answers did you get right the second time? .....

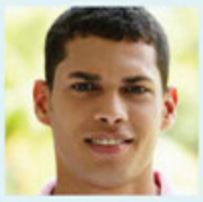

Study unit 2

Keeping a vocabulary notebook

A What do you do?

This is what some students do.

RAFAEL I write down new English words and phrases in my notebook, and next to each one I write a Spanish translation. I usually write down if a word is a noun, verb, adjective, and so on.

KAZUO I sometimes write a word in phonemics because English pronunciation is very difficult for me. But my notebook is a mess [nothing is in a good order; syn untidy]. I like to draw pictures.

EUN I sometimes make a note of new words in my notebook, but I often forget [don't remember]. I usually write a translation, and sometimes I write example sentences as well.

ANDREY I've got a notebook. I don't use it much but when I do, I try and list words by topic, so I put all the animals together, and all the clothes words together, and so on. I find it's easier to remember the words this way.

DONATA I note down new words and phrases. Sometimes I translate them into Polish, and sometimes I write an explanation [a description of what something means] in English if it is not difficult. For example:
kitten – a very young cat

B Tips for your notebook

A tip is a piece of advice to help you. Here are some tips for your notebook.

- Put words from one topic in the same place, e.g. food in one place, clothes in another, etc. Don't mix them up [put them together with no order]. You can also have grammar topics, e.g. 'uncountable nouns', or a page for words that all have a connection, e.g. words and phrases that were all in a story you read in English. Some words and phrases will go in more than one topic.
- If you can't find a topic for a new word or phrase, e.g. useful or in particular, put them in a different place in your notebook, e.g. a page for each day or each week, or perhaps one page for every English lesson you have. Write the date clearly at the top, e.g. Monday 14th May.
- When you write down new vocabulary, write a translation if it is necessary [you need it; opp unnecessary], but also write the meaning in English if it is possible, or draw pictures.
- If possible, add synonyms, opposites, other parts of speech, etc. (See Unit 1.)
  awful adj = terrible (syn dreadful) enjoy v = like something and get pleasure from it n = enjoyment adj = enjoyable
- Example sentences help you with the grammar of a word, or with word partners (collocations).
  I enjoy living in a big city. (NOT I enjoy ~~to live~~ in a big city.) (See Units 87–8.)
  I spent two weeks in Rome. (NOT I ~~passed~~ two weeks in Rome. You spend time in a place.) (See Unit 74.)
- Remember, words often have more than one meaning that you need to know, e.g. a tip is also money that you give, for example, to a waiter for serving you in a restaurant.

Exercises

2.1 Organise the words into the topics below. One word can go in two different topics. Use a dictionary to help you.

~~diet~~	branch	lay the table	count v	dig v	ground	flour	add up raw	leaf	minus	butcher	thousand	frozen	zero	butterfly

food	garden	numbers
diet

2.2 Explain these words in English, or draw a picture, or if you think an explanation is too difficult and a drawing is not possible, write a translation instead.

1 raw not cooked .....
2 dig .....
3 butcher .....
4 leaf .....
5 flour .....
6 lay the table .....
7 add up .....
8 minus .....

2.3 What information could you include with these words? The answers are all on the opposite page.

1 forget opposite – remember .....
2 awful .....
3 necessary .....
4 translate .....
5 tip .....
6 enjoy .....

2.4 Over to you

Answer the questions. If possible, compare your answers with someone else.

1 Look again at what the students said on the opposite page. What are the good things that they do? Underline them.

2 Do you do all of these things? .....

3 Is there anything you don't do now, but will do in the future? .....

4 At the moment, which person's notebook is most like your notebook? .....

5 What are the most useful tips on the opposite page for you? .....
.....

Study unit 3

Using a dictionary

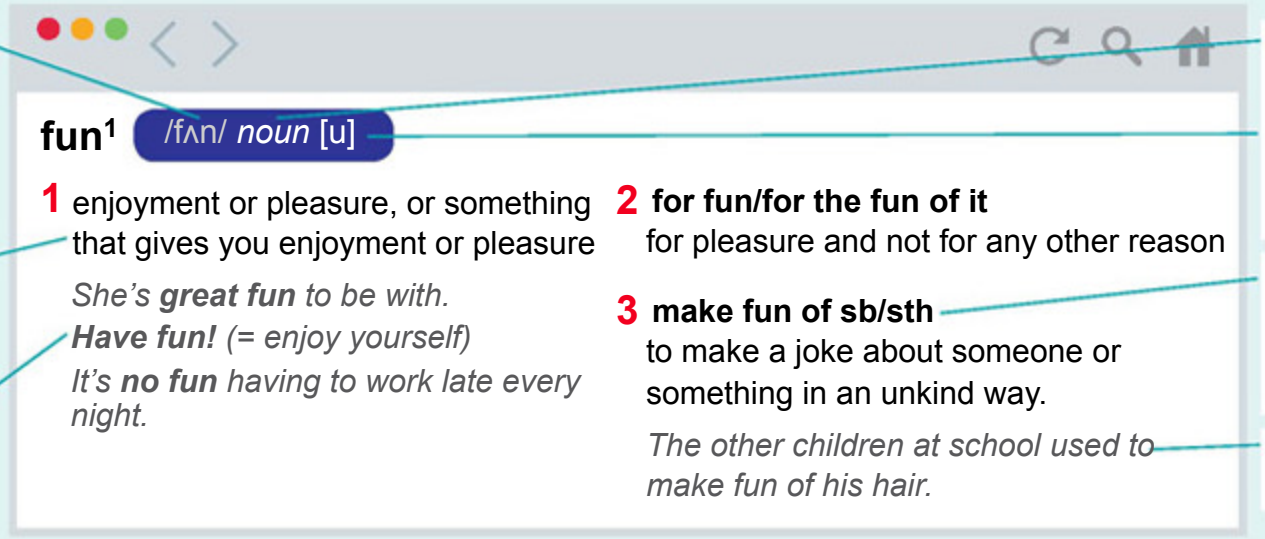

A What dictionaries do I need?

A bilingual dictionary [using two languages] is easy for you to understand, and quick and easy to use. A dictionary in English will give you reading practice in English and many more examples of how words are used. If possible, use both. These are good dictionaries in English for your level, and most of them are available online:

Cambridge Learner's Dictionary
Longman Active Study Dictionary
Oxford Wordpower Dictionary
Macmillan Essential Dictionary

B Information in dictionaries

If you look up a word [find a word in a dictionary] using the Cambridge Learner's Dictionary, the information is shown like this:

3.1 Correct the spelling mistakes. Use a dictionary to check your answers.

1 allways always
2 realy .....
3 unfortunatly .....
4 expecially .....
5 cloths .....
6 confortable .....
7 accomodation .....
8 beautifull .....
9 unbeleivable .....
10 neccesary .....

3.2 In the word island /ˈaɪlənd/, the letter 's' is silent (not pronounced). Use your dictionary to find the silent letters in these words.

1 knee 2 comb 3 castle 4 salmon 5 receipt

C Defining words

'Defining words' are words that dictionaries use when they define [explain] the words in the dictionary. Some of these are quite common.

emphasise [give something more attention and importance], e.g. My teacher has always emphasised the importance of writing down new words in a notebook.
relating to or connected to/with [having a relationship with someone or something], e.g. musical is connected with / related to music amount [how much there is of something], e.g. £5 million is a large amount of money.
official [done by the government or someone in authority], e.g. A passport is an official document.
behave [do or say things in a particular way], e.g. People can behave strangely when they're nervous.

Exercises

3.3 Complete the dictionary definitions using words from the box.

~~connected with~~	emphasise	relating to	behave	official	amount

1 industrial /ɪn'dʌstriəl/ 1 adjective connected with industry
2 sum /sʌm/ noun [C] an ..... of money
3 pretend /prɪ'tend/ verb [I,T] to ..... as if something is true when it is not
4 certificate /sə'tɪfɪkət/ noun [C] an ..... document that gives details to show something is true
5 not at all /nɒt ət ɔːl/ used instead of 'no' or 'not' to ..... what you are saying: I'm not at all happy about it
6 legal /'liːgəl/ adjective ..... the law

D Using a dictionary

- When you use a dictionary to check the meaning of a word, put a tick (✓) next to it. Each time you return to a page with a tick, see [find out] if you remember the word.
- When you meet a new word or phrase in a text, first try to guess the meaning [try to think of the meaning when you don't know it]. Then, use a dictionary to see if your guess was correct.
- Don't just read the dictionary definition. Example phrases and sentences show you how a word or phrase is used, and they help you to understand the meaning more clearly.
- If you look up a word in a bilingual dictionary and get two or three different translations, check these words in an English dictionary to see which translation is the best one for the situation.
- Remember that many words have more than one meaning. The first meaning in the dictionary is not always the one you want. You may need to read through the different meanings.

3.4 Answer the questions, and use an English dictionary to check the answers.

1 What does puppy mean? It's a very young dog.
2 Is the correct spelling organize or organise? .....
3 What part of speech is extremely? .....
4 What kind of noun is advice? .....
5 What preposition follows the verb rely? .....
6 Look up friend, and then the words in bold that are often used with it. Can you complete these phrases? She's an ..... friend; he's my ..... friend; you ..... friends with people.

3.5 Match the sentences on the right with the different meanings of post on the left.

post[1] /pəʊst/ noun

1 System [no plural] UK (US mail)
the system for sending letters, parcels, etc

Your letter is in the post.
I'm sending the documents by post.

2 Letters [u] UK (US mail)
letters, parcels, etc that you send or receive

*Has the post arrived/come yet?

3 Job [c] formal
a job

A part-time post.
A teaching post.

4 Pole [c] a long, vertical piece of wood or metal fixed into the ground at one end.

I found the dog tied to a post.

1 He's applied for a post overseas.
2 Did you send the cheque by post?
3 I tied the flag to a post.
4 We haven't had any post yet.

Study unit 4

English language words

A Parts of speech

"I have a brown leather chair by the window, and I often sit there in the morning to listen to music."

In the sentence above, I is a pronoun; chair, window, morning and music are all nouns; have, sit and listen are verbs; brown and leather are adjectives; often is an adverb; by and to are prepositions; the is a definite article; a is an indefinite article; and is a conjunction or link word.

Here are two more examples:

"We saw an elephant at the zoo yesterday."
Elephant and zoo are nouns; saw is a verb; at is a preposition; an is an indefinite article; the is a definite article.

"It was a cold night, so I walked quickly."
Was and walked are verbs; cold is an adjective; night is a noun; quickly is an adverb; so is a link word.

B Grammar

When you are learning vocabulary, you need to know certain things about different words; for example, if nouns are countable, e.g. books, apples, chairs; or uncountable, e.g. information (NOT ~~informations~~), advice (NOT ~~advices~~). (See Unit 86.)
With verbs, you need to know if they are regular, e.g. work, live, etc; or irregular, e.g. go/went, take/took. You will also need to learn the grammar of phrasal verbs, e.g. take something off, wake up. (See Units 79–80.)
You also need to learn certain groups of words as phrases, e.g. at the moment, never mind, see you later. (See Units 75–6.)

C Word building

In the word uncomfortable, un- is a prefix, and -able is a suffix. Other common prefixes include in- and dis-, e.g. incorrect and dislike. Common suffixes include -ment and -ive, e.g. improvement and attractive. (See Units 70–72.)

D Pronunciation

Dictionaries show the pronunciation of a word using phonemic symbols, e.g. book /bʊk/, before /bɪ'fɔː/, cinema /'sɪnəmə/.
Every word has one or more syllables, e.g. book has one syllable, before has two syllables, cinema has three syllables.
It is important to know which syllable to stress, e.g. on before it is the second syllable (be'fore), on cinema it is the first syllable ('cinema). The vertical mark ' shows where the stressed syllable begins.

E Punctuation

Every sentence must begin with a capital letter and end with a full stop. Some sentences have a comma, which often shows a pause [when you stop reading or speaking for a short time] in a long sentence. Did you also know that a question must end with a question mark?

Exercises

4.1 Put the words into the correct columns.

~~noun~~	comma	phonemic symbol	adverb	stress question mark	syllable	preposition	full stop	adjective

parts of speech	punctuation	pronunciation

4.2 There is one word missing in each line of the text. Where does the missing word go? What could it be? What part of speech is it?

It is beautiful city and I had a marvellous time. I stayed in a very hotel right in the centre, but I didn't mind spending a lot money because it was a wonderful and it was very convenient. SHOPPING & MONEY

How do supermarkets make us[1] spend more money?

They put fresh[2] bread, as it smells lovely, near the entrance[3] to make us feel hungry – and hungry shoppers spend more. They also rearrange things and put them in different places; this makes us spend more time in the store and that means spending more money. They put sweets and chocolate near the checkout, so it is easy to add bars of chocolate to our basket or trolley while we are waiting in the queue[4]. And they put the most expensive items[5] on the middle shelves where you are more likely[6] to see them. And be careful of special offers[7], e.g. three for the price of two. People often buy more than they need and throw away half of it.

[5] an item is a single thing
[6] If you are likely to do something, you will probably do it.

Some people like modern shopping centres[1] because everything is under one roof[2] and it is convenient[3]. There's a wide range[4] of shops, and if there is anything wrong with something you buy, the shop will replace[5] it, or give you a refund[6].

Other people prefer going to street markets because they like the atmosphere[7] you get from the different stalls. Food and clothes are also usually cheaper in street markets. Sometimes you can try to agree a lower price for something you buy in a street market; we call this haggling. Of course, if you don't like what you buy in a street market, you can't normally take it back and get a refund.

[1] large covered shopping areas
[2] in one place
[3] practical and easy to use
[4] different things of the same type
[5] exchange it for another one
[6] money that is paid back to you when you return something

A: I'm(terribly/really) sorry – I've forgotten your book.

B: Never mind. That's OK.

Terribly/really makes you sound 'more sorry'.

A: I beg your pardon – I didn't see you there.

B: That's all right. (also That's OK.)

I beg your pardon is a more formal apology, often used if you walk into someone.

A: (I'm) sorry to disturb you.

B: Don't worry. Come on in. I can finish this later.

We use this phrase when we interrupt / speak to someone who is busy working.

A: (I'm) sorry to keep you waiting – I won't be long.

B: OK. Fine.

We use this phrase when someone is waiting for us. I won't be long = I will be with you very soon.

A: Excuse me, I won't be a minute.

B: OK. Fine.

We use this phrase when we have to leave a room or go somewhere.

A: I must apologise for the noise last night.

B: That's all right. I understand.

This is a more formal apology, and it is often used in business letters.

A: I'm(really) sorry I'm late.

B: Don't worry.

Common mistakes

I'm sorry I'm late. (NOT I'm sorry ~~for be~~ late. OR I'm sorry ~~to be~~ late.)

B Excuses

We often give an explanation or excuse after an apology. An excuse is a reason for the apology, which may or may not be true. These are excuses students might give for being late for class.

I'm sorry I'm late for class …

– There was a delay / hold-up on the underground. [when a train, plane, etc. leaves or arrives later than you expect]
– I was held up in traffic. [hold up – cause a delay and make someone late – is often used in the passive] – My train was cancelled [the train company decided not to run the train], and I had to wait half an hour for the next one.
– I overslept [slept longer than I planned or wanted to].

72 Suffixes: forming adjectives

Common suffixes that form adjectives include: -able (comfortable), -al (musical), -y (cloudy), -ous (famous) and -ive (attractive).

A -al

Adjectives ending -al are usually formed from nouns, and often mean 'relating to the noun', e.g. a musical instrument (from music), a political issue (from politics), an electrical fault (related to electricity), a personal opinion (the opinion of one person).

SHICHI-GO-SAN

Shichi-Go-San (meaning 7, 5, 3) is an annual ceremony in Japan for three-and seven-year-old girls, and three-and five-year-old boys. It is on November 15, but it is not a national[1] holiday, so people often have it on the nearest weekend. Seven, five and three are seen as important years in the growth of a child, and the numbers also have cultural significance[2] because odd numbers (1, 3, 5, 7, 9, etc.) are lucky in Japan. This is one of the special days when the older boys and girls are allowed to wear traditional[3] clothes: a kimono for girls and hakama trousers for boys. Now it is quite normal[4] for children to wear western-style clothes at this ceremony. The children visit a shrine and are then given special sweets called Chitose-Ame by their parents.

[1] a holiday for the whole country
[2] they are important in Japanese culture
[3] in a style that has continued for many years
[4] usual

B -able /əbl/

This suffix forms adjectives from nouns and verbs, and the prefix un- often forms the opposite:
an enjoyable party [something that you enjoyed] a comfortable chair (opp uncomfortable) a suitable word or phrase [right/correct for a particular situation; opp unsuitable] a reliable service; reliable information [able to be trusted or believed; opp unreliable] fashionable clothes [popular now with many people; opp unfashionable] a reasonable decision or price [fair; not a bad decision or price; opp unreasonable] a sociable person [enjoys being with people; opp unsociable]

Sometimes the opposite form is the more common adjective:
an unforgettable experience [something that cannot be forgotten] an unbelievable story [something that is very surprising and very difficult to believe]

C -ful and -less

The suffix -ful often means 'full of' or 'having the quality of the noun', e.g. a colourful room has a lot of colour in it; a helpful person gives a lot of help; a peaceful place is calm and quiet. The opposite meaning is sometimes formed by adding the suffix -less to the noun.
a useful machine [having a lot of uses; opp a useless machine] a painful injection [giving pain and being unpleasant; opp a painless injection] a careful driver [drives with care and attention; opp a careless driver]

80 Phrasal verbs 2: grammar and style

A Phrasal verbs with no object

Some phrasal verbs don't have an object. We cannot put other words between the parts of the verb.

When does your train get in [arrive]?
Hold on [wait a moment], I just need to get my coat.
The car broke down on my way to work. [stopped working]
I'll call for them at 8 o'clock. [go to collect them]
We set off [started the journey] about 7.30.

B Phrasal verbs with an object

Many phrasal verbs need an object. We can usually put the object in different positions.

Put on your shoes.
Put your shoes on.

Turn on the TV.
Turn the TV on.

Take off your coat.
Take your coat off.

These are separable phrasal verbs, but if the object is a long phrase, it usually goes at the end, e.g. I turned off the lights in the living room. If the object is a pronoun, it must go in the middle, e.g. Turn it off.

Common mistakes

Put them on. (NOT Put ~~on them~~.); Take it off. (NOT Take ~~off it~~.)

There are some phrasal verbs where the object must come after the phrasal verb.
I will look after the children for you. [take care of them]
How did the two men break into the shop? [enter the shop using force, e.g. breaking a window]

C In dictionaries

Dictionaries usually show the grammar of a phrasal verb like this:

No object

hang around (also UK hang about) to spend time somewhere, usually without doing very much:
There's nowhere for teenagers to go, so they just hang around on street corners.

Separable

hand sth out
to give something to all the people in a group:
A girl was handing out leafl ets at the station.

Not separable
(the object must come after the phrasal verb)

get over sth
to begin to feel better after being unhappy or ill:
It took her months to get over the shock of Richard leaving.

D Style

Phrasal verbs are commonly used in spoken and written English. Many phrasal verbs are quite informal, and sometimes there is a single word with the same meaning as a phrasal verb, which sounds more formal. We use this word instead of the phrasal verb in more formal situations.

leave sb/sth out [not include sb/sth; syn omit], e.g. He made a list of people but left me out.
make sth up [create sth from your imagination; syn invent], e.g. We had to make up a story.
put sth off [put sth back to a later date; syn postpone], e.g. They put the game off till Friday.

We use very or really with gradable adjectives which do not have an extreme meaning, e.g. very big, very good, very nice, very tired, really good, really tired, etc. (NOT ~~absolutely big~~)

B Adjectives ending in -ing and -ed

From Benita S. x 4:35 PM (1 hour ago)

Dear Sandy

an (absolutely) exhausting

Arrived on Sunday evening after ~~a very tiring~~ journey. We're very pleased with the hotel: our room is very big, and the food is very nice. We've been lucky with the weather as well. The first day was wet but the last three days have been very nice.

Tomorrow we're going to walk the coastal path to Dartmouth Castle. It's quite a difficult route and people tell us it's very important to take a map, but it sounds very interesting, so I'm looking forward to it.

I'll write again in a couple of days and tell you all about it.

love

Benita

As soon as / When you've finished this exercise, you can go home.

F A list of reasons

93 Addition and contrast

A As well (as), what's more, in addition (to), besides

We often link ideas using and, e.g. The food's nice and very good value. There are other words and phrases we also use to add more information. Sometimes we still include and or also.

The restaurant has excellent food; it's also very good value.
You always get a good view, and the seats are comfortable as well. (syn too)
As well as getting cheaper tickets, I also got the opportunity to buy them in advance.

B Although, despite, in spite of

We use these link words when there are two ideas in a sentence, and the second is surprising or not expected. They can be used at the beginning or in the middle of the sentence.

Although / Even though the sun was shining, it wasn't very warm.
We found the place quite easily, although / even though we didn't know where it was.
They went for a walk despite the fact that it was raining.
Despite having no money, he still seemed very happy.
They got there on time in spite of the delay.
In spite of all the problems, we still enjoyed the trip.

Language help

We can use still to emphasise that we didn't expect something to happen or be true, e.g. He didn't do any work but he still passed the exam; The work is very hard, but he still enjoys it.

C However, yet, though

We can use however and yet when the second part of an idea is surprising after the first part. However is often used to link ideas in two separate sentences. Though can be used in a similar way in spoken English, but usually comes at the end of the sentence. Notice the use of commas (,) here, and the different positions of however.

I don't agree with a lot of his methods. However, he is a very good teacher.
We didn't particularly like the house. The garden, however, was wonderful.
It was warm and sunny when we were there. Most of the time, however, it's quite cold.

We went in the autumn, yet it was still quite warm.
I didn't like the film much. I'm glad I went to see it, though.
They told us the shop was next to the station. We never found it, though.

D While and whereas

We can use while and whereas to compare two different facts or situations.

I get £20 an hour, while Josh only gets £12.
The speed limit on this road is 80kph, whereas it's 130kph on the motorway.

We moved house because of my father's work. (NOT We moved house ~~because~~ my father's work.)

B Purpose

A purpose is an intention or reason for doing something.
The purpose of the meeting is to plan next year's timetable. [the reason for the meeting]

We often introduce a purpose using so (that) or (in order) to:
I bought this book so (that) I could improve my English.
They went home early (in order) to watch the match on television.
We moved house so (that) we could send our children to this school.
She went into town (in order) to do some shopping.

C Result

These link words/phrases are used when one thing happens because another thing has happened. Therefore and as a result are more formal than so, and less common in spoken English.
I left my ticket at home, so I had to buy another one.
They've got more money, and therefore they can afford to buy the best football players.
I forgot to send the email. As a result, no one knew about the meeting.

D Conditions

We sometimes use whether [if] when we are not sure about something.
I didn't buy it because I wasn't sure whether you'd like it.
I spoke to the others, but I don't know whether they're coming.

We'll be late unless we leave now. [if we don't leave now]
Unless the weather improves [if the weather doesn't improve], we won't be able to go.

I have to go now, otherwise [because if I don't] I'll miss the last bus.
You'll have to turn up the music, otherwise [because if you don't] they won't be able to hear it.

You can borrow it as long as you bring it back by Thursday. [but you must bring it back]
You can wear what you like as long as you look quite smart. [but you must look quite smart]

I'm taking my umbrella in case it rains. [I'm doing A because B might happen later.]
Take some money in case you need to get a taxi.

B: Really? My brother saw it and said it was a load of rubbish [terrible].

Language help

We often use the uncountable noun stuff, especially in spoken English, to refer to an uncountable noun or a group of things. We do this when others know what we are talking about, or if we don't need to be exact.

We carried our camping stuff [equipment].
What's this stuff in the fridge in the blue bottle? [liquid]

3 On a CV, what would you put as your interests, your skills, and your career aims?

97 Writing an essay

A The basis of a discursive essay*

In a discursive essay you have to express your own ideas and point of view [opinion]. It is also important to show that you understand both sides of an argument [reasons for something and reasons against something]. This means you need to understand and use different link words and phrases such as in addition, however, etc. (See Unit 93.)

* an essay that discusses a subject

B Expressing a point of view

Some people believe [Some people think] that no one should be sent to prison under the age of 18.
There is an argument [a reason to think] that everyone should have a university education.

Language help

You can express a personal point of view with phrases such as I believe / think that … or It seems to me that … but you can also use less personal and direct ways of expressing a point of view, as in the phrases on the left. Many people think it is better not to use In my opinion in written essays.

C Giving both sides of an argument

One of the advantages of being an only child is that you have more attention from your parents. However, it can be lonely without the company of brothers and sisters.

On the one hand, computers can do so many things faster than human beings. On the other (hand), some people are becoming dependent on them, which is not a good thing.

D Comparing and contrasting*

We often make comparisons between groups of people, or between the past and the present.
Compared with / to my grandparents, I have had much more opportunity to travel abroad.
In the past people didn't have computers, but nowadays there is one in almost every home.
Most parts of the developed world have become richer in the last thirty years. In contrast, many countries in Africa have become much poorer.

* saying how two things are similar and how they are different

E Making generalisations

Sometimes a simple statement is not accurate, e.g. Young people prefer to watch American films.
This is not true for all young people, so we use certain words and phrases to show that we are making a generalisation [saying that something is true most of the time or in most situations].
In general, Japanese society is more focused on groups than individuals. (syn on the whole)
Teenagers tend to have [usually have] more freedom than in the past.

F Cause and effect*

Poor diet and lack of exercise are the main causes of obesity [reasons for being very fat].
Obesity is often the result of a bad diet and not enough exercise.
People don't eat the right food or get enough exercise, and consequently [because of this; syn as a result] they put on weight.
Poor diet can cause obesity, and this can have a bad effect on people's health.

* how something happens, and then makes something else happen

Language help

Don't confuse the verb affect and the noun effect.
Pollution can affect people's breathing.
Pollution can have an effect on people's breathing.

Exercises

97.1 Match the definitions on the left with the examples on the right.

1 expressing a point of view
2 making a comparison
3 describing the result of something
4 showing both sides of an argument
5 making a generalisation

[c] a Canada has a smaller population than the USA.
[ ] b People tend to retire at a later age.
[ ] c Some people believe we should never go to war.
[ ] d Animals die because we're cutting down the forest.
[ ] e Television can make children lazy. However, there are many programmes with real educational value.

97.2 One word is missing in each sentence. What is it, and where should it go?

1 It seems me that there is a problem. to
2 One of the advantages studying law is that it should lead to a good career.
3 It is important to give sides of the argument.
4 Too much time spent in front of a television can have a bad eff ect children.
5 People like to have freedom of choice. On the other, too much choice can be a bad thing.
6 Time tends go faster as you get older.

97.3 Choose the correct word to complete the sentences. Sometimes both are correct.

1 There is not enough food, and consequently / on the other hand people are dying.
2 Advertising is so powerful that it causes / affects people to buy things they don't want. In addition / However, it can help them make the right choice when they buy things.
3 In general / On the whole people have more access to education than fift y years ago.
4 Supermarkets are very convenient because you can buy almost everything you want. On the other side / hand, they are putting small shops out of business.
5 The north of the country is much richer compared with / to the south.

97.4 Complete part of this essay on the advantages and disadvantages of the Internet for children.

One of the[1] advantages of the Internet is that children have access to so much knowledge and information.[2] ..... , many children can access this knowledge from their own homes; they don't have to go to libraries.[3] ..... , some of the information on the Internet is unreliable and out-of-date, and there are some websites we would not want our children to look at. [4] ..... , we need to control the way that our children use the Internet, and there is certainly an [5] ..... for much stricter controls on the websites that people are allowed to create. If we don't do this, the Internet could have a bad [6] ..... on children.

97.5 Rewrite the sentences following the instructions in (brackets).

1 People who drink and drive should go to prison. (Show that this is a personal opinion.)
I believe that people who drink and drive should go to prison.
2 People are conservative. (Make this statement a generalisation.)
.....
3 Cars should not be allowed in town centres. (Make this opinion less personal.)
.....
4 Children played on their bikes. Children spend most of their time in front of a computer. (Make this a comparison between the past and the present in one sentence.)
.....
5 Many people work longer and longer hours. They don't have time for hobbies. (Show the connection between these two statements in one sentence.)

2 It's very good for a medium-sized town: lots of restaurants and bars, a few nightclubs, two or three cinemas, two or three theatres, several concert halls, etc.
3 Yes it is. As well as cinema, theatre and concerts, we have a number of festivals: a literature festival, a jazz festival, a food festival, and lots of cultural talks and lectures you can go to.
4 There is pollution in the town centre because it's between two hills.
5 The crime rate isn't bad because it is quite a rich town, and I feel safe at night.
6 Living in my town has lots of advantages. There are lots of things to do, like go to the cinema, theatre, etc. There are plenty of shops too, and a train station. But some of the disadvantages are that there are too many cars and traffic jams and this means there is pollution too.
